ROLAND BOSS DS1 MIT BLACK LABEL

by Frogstomp89 » 26 Dec 2011, 09:03

I had someone once tell me that

Black Label MIT from early 90's were made out of leftovers from japan, is that true?

oh another detail I know is the adaptor face is wider so thats an ACA for sure. Only the old good ones use ACA right ?

Yes, just like the SD-1. and why they have not changed the SD-1 and a few other pedals to this newer case makes no sense to me.

Thanks a lot DB Cooper.
It's just eye candy. Bossarea.com had all the info on ALL things Boss but was lacking pictures so I just put up a site with the sole purpose of showing pics of Boss stompboxes... and my collection. How I wish the latter would include more than 44 clickable links got to love it when a fan site is better

BossArea is just a fan site, too - not associated with Boss/Roland in any way. But CHOCK FULL of valuable information.

You're absolutely right DB, BossArea is THE fansite. But thanks anyway Frogstomp89.

I learned a lot from Bossarea about Boss pedals. I wish in Stomp box Zone we would talk about other types of pedal companies
