DingoTone pedals available at carparelliguitars.com!

by Pepe » 03 Nov 2015, 14:55

I cannot believe it! I just ordered a DingoTone LGP and I hope it will arrive soon at Dirk's address in the Netherlands. I bought it at carparelliguitars.com and they have almost all the classic DingoTone models for sale:

http://www.carparelliguitars.com/index. ... =relevance

LGP Liquid Gold Phaser
FDD Fat Dingo Distortion
CSF Classic Seventies Fuzz
GHF Germanium Hybrid Fuzz
BSD Big Sky Drive
HZD Boost

... for 100 CA$ each!

I don't know how they got their hands on all these pedals, but grab them while you can! I don't know if they are new models or NOS or used, but I sent an e-mail to that shop to ask exactly that. I hope my LGP will be a very fresh looking model with box and papers!

Okay, the seller sent me a reply:

> I bought these pedals from DingoTone about 2 years ago for RE-Selling. I had bought ONE of EACH pedal and your's is the ONE. I ever used them, only had them in the BOX and just recently I started posting everything on my website. I noticed that Dingo Tone no longer looks to be in business.

> I will mark the LGP as Sold Out now.....thank you for your order!!

Oh, yeah! An LGP!

As usual I will await your order. 😄

Nice score btw. Pepe. 👍

Those who don't buy the GHF or the other pedals now will miss a rare opportunity, because those pedals are NEW! 100CA$ are a great price. And the seller seems to be a very nice person.

Well, that's a beauty, congrats! I'd be interested to hear how it compares to your Korg Phaser.

Tempted to buy the BSD over drive (if they're that good). Any info in that?

I truly appreciate the enthusiasm for these pedals... Can't be sure, but they look like they are from one of my final production runs (before the ownership change).

You made a good product, and people trusted and believed in you. It's little wonder these pedals are often talked about, and highly regarded around these parts.

So the temptation for Mark123 is over already. But don't worry! I have seen a few BSD's on the used market in the past and there will be more in the future, I'm sure.

I inquired about this one, and he quoted me $40 USD shipping to Canada - which is like $64 worth of shipping given current exchange rates. At that price, I'd practically expect a stripper to jump out of the parcel when it arrived 40$ from USA to Canada? I can send it for 12$ from GERMANY to Canada. Insured!

I'm fairly confident it's not costing him $40 at the post office. Even sending pedals overseas during CPEWT using express (Air) was under $30 Canadian.

I think I read about it in the old Bossarea forum but 5 years ago, there was an online music shop in France selling the Boss EH-2 for 15 Euros. Sent them an email about the shipping cost and I was told 95 Euros. At that point, it did not matter whether the price of the pedal was included in the 95 Euros quoted.

Makes you wonder if its a tax thing - declare less revenue on the transaction, hide the revenue in the costs associated with shipping. Who knows.

Somehow it's raining LGPs! Here's another one in Calgary for 90$:

Maybe this is interesting for Scott since it's 90CA$ and in mint condition with all the goodies as it seems.
